DEFENDANT'S RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO ADMIT
PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT 51

Plaintiff's memorandum correctly states the law. The cases cited by plaintiff deal with confusion between the products or services of the mark owner and the infringer. In the subject case there is no such confusion. The confusion within Exhibit 51 is between the visitor's idea of the school's integrity and message on the web site.

The Defendant does not have the opportunity to cross examine the declarant of Exhibit 51. Cross examination might show how she arrived at the defendant's web site. Perhaps her mistake, was purely her fault and not related to defendant's use of the mark.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ John A.. Rebel
